MIRACLE ON 34TH ST

The Phoenix Theatre Company: Amidst the flickering warmth of a winter hearth, a heartfelt musical resurrects the airwaves of 1947, transporting you through the static of time to this treasured holiday classic. At its center is Kris Kringle, a disarmingly whimsical gentleman whose claim to be the one and only Santa Claus sets off a series of events that challenge even the most cynical of minds. Masterfully composed with original songs, timeless carols, and the nostalgic art of a live radio broadcast, Miracle on 34th Street reminds us that the greatest gifts transcend the material, found within the boundless wonder of an open heart and mind. Judith Hurdles Theatre. $59 - $121. 7:00 PM. 1825 N Central Ave phoenixtheatre.com 11/20 - 11/24.

What do you get when you cross the definitive holiday action movie with All Puppet Players brand of fast, fury, funnied-frenzy? You get an instant holiday classic! While most families will deposit their holiday cheer with Scrooge and friends, the All Puppet Players are offering an alternative that includes John McClane saving his wife from master criminal Hans Gruber during a Christmas party. Nothing is safe and no holiday memory unsoiled while the puppets wreak havoc on Christmas (Yay, we said it) and bring the holiday spirit to all good little children 17 and up. There will be caroling, and gun-fights, curse words, and all the puppet anarchy you can shake a yule log at. Welcome to the party, pal! $64. 5:30 PM Sunday. 1850 N Central Ave allpuppetplayers.com 11/22 - 11/24.*
