

SAN FRANCISCO

Bay Area Artist to Be Featured in 'Let's Glow SF' Event

By Gia Vang, Christine Ni and and Michael Horn • Published 1 hour ago • Updated 22 mins ago

On Friday night, several iconic buildings in downtown San Francisco will light up with large art displays by local and international artists for the second annual "Let's Glow SF." Gia Vang speaks with Yiyang Lu, who is one of the artist featured in the event which is artist and entrepreneur. Lu's upbringing and education overseas has influenced her work as a designer.

On Friday night, several iconic buildings in downtown San Francisco will light up with large art displays by local and international artists for the second annual "Let's Glow SF."

Her work is universal and seen just about everywhere. She's the designer behind the popular emojis such as the dumpling, fortune cookie, chopsticks, and Chinese take out boxes. Yu is also the woman behind Twitter's iconic "fail whale."

For more information about the event, visit downtownsf.org.

Get a weekly recap of the latest San Francisco Bay Area housing news. Sign up for NBC Bay Area's Housing Deconstructed newsletter.

You can watch Gia Vang's full interview with Yiyong Lu in the video above.

This article tagged under:

SAN FRANCISCO

Unsold Furniture Liquidation! It Might be Surprisingly Affordable

Yahoo! Search | Sponsored

Over 64 Seniors Benefit from This Medicare Plan

Go Searches | Sponsored

Learn More

USMNT's Christian Pulisic Taken to Hospital, Diagnosed With Pelvic Injury

USMNT star Christian Pulisic was taken to the hospital after exiting Tuesday's 2022 FIFA World Cup win over Iran with an injury.

NBC Bay Area