Section 2. Self-Dealing Transactions.

Except as provided in Section 3, below, the Board shall not approve or permit the Corporation to engage in any self-dealing transaction. A self-dealing transaction is a transaction to which the Corporation is a party and in which one or more of its Directors has a material financial interest, unless the transaction is described in Section 5233(b) of the California Corporations Code. Any Board member who provides a service or product to the Board must recuse themselves from discussion as well as moving, seconding or voting on that particular issue in which they may have a financial interest.

Section 3. Approval.

This Corporation may engage in a self-dealing transaction if the transaction is approved by a court or by the Attorney General. This Corporation also may engage in a self-dealing transaction if the Board determines, before the transaction, that (1) the Corporation is entering into the transaction for its own benefit; (2) the transaction is fair and reasonable to the Corporation at the time; and (3) after reasonable investigation, the Board determines that it could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances. Such determinations must be made by the Board in good faith, with knowledge of the material facts concerning the transaction and the interest of the Director or Directors in the transaction, and by a vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, without counting the vote of the interested Director or Directors.

ARTICLE 14. CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND COMPENSATION APPROVAL POLICIES

Section 1: Purpose of Conflict of Interest Policy

The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect this tax-exempt Corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or Director of the Corporation or any "disqualified person" as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations and which might result in a possible "excess benefit transaction" as defined in Section 4958(c)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958 of the IRS Regulations. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2; Definitions

A) Interested Person. Any Director, principal officer, member of a committee with governing Board delegated powers, or any other person who is a "disqualified person" as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

B) Financial Interest. A Director has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

1. an ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or
2. a compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or
3. a potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under SECTION 3, paragraph B, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing Board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Section 3: Conflict of Interest Avoidance Procedures

A) Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Directors and members of committees with governing Board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

B) Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing Board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

C) Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest.

1. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing Board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

2. The chairperson of the governing Board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

3. After exercising due diligence, the governing Board or committee shall determine whether the Corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

4. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing Board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

D) Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If the governing Board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a Director or committee member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the individual of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing Board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY

I, the undersigned, certify that I am the currently elected and acting Secretary of East Village Association, a California Non-profit Public Benefit Corporation, and the above Bylaws, consisting of 24 pages, are the Bylaws of the Corporation as adopted at a meeting of the Board held on XXXX.

East Village Association - Spaces Office Contract

- The Spaces monthly office rental is $2,063.41.
- The EVA has a current fixed 12-month office space rent term through November 30, 2023.
- Monthly EVA District Identity & Placemaking (DIP) Committee meetings are held monthly in the 2nd floor conference room free of charge due as EVA is a Spaces client and non-profit organization benefiting the East Village community.
- Typical meeting costs for the 2nd floor conference room are traditionally $232.50 per hour.
- Downgrading of current EVA 'office space membership' to a 'co-working membership' would result in the loss of current free meeting room accommodation.
- Termination of EVA Spaces Office Contract must be submitted by August 31, 2023. Spaces staff recommended terminating the EVA contract now to avoid entering another 12-month contract.

Potential DIP Meeting Space Alternatives

- UCSD Park & Market– EVA Board and Executive Committee Meetings are held at UCSD Park & Market. UCSD is already significantly accommodating the EVA.
- Commons Church (Ratner Building 2nd Floor below IZOLA) – Pastors Jay Denison and Carlos Isaziga are opening a shared public space in September 2023; they have a roundtable meeting room that may be a feasible meeting space. Commons is discussing internally and will respond to EVA staff with more information. Commons alluded to being willing to accommodate EVA DIP meetings at no cost.
