

Eric Eisenberg
The Renaissance Group
Property: 6358 Yucca St.

Eric Eisenberg is an experienced urban redeveloper from Los Angeles, specializing in historic preservation and restoration. With a strong background in revitalizing communities, Eisenberg is dedicated to breathing new life into historic neighborhoods while preserving their unique character. His work blends the past with the present, ensuring that restored areas not only honor their heritage but also meet the needs of modern residents and businesses. Eisenberg is a Los Angeles County Commissioner for the Department of Arts and Culture. As a member of the Hollywood Partnership, Eric continues to apply his expertise to projects that enhance the cultural and architectural fabric of Los Angeles.

