

William Doak
Stockdale Capital Partners, LLC
Property: 1717 Vine St.

As managing director at Stockdale Capital Partners, Bill oversees the investment, asset management and property management of the firm's $500 million hospitality investment portfolio which includes the Aster Hotel and Member club. Doak is a native Angeleno with 40 years experience in hotel management and hospitality real estate investments. Previously, he served as head of CIM Group's hotel group that included the Hollywood Renaissance and Redbury Hollywood hotels. For the past 9 years, Bill has served on the Los Angeles Tourism and Convention Board of Directors, is past Chair of the Santa Monica CVB and for 6 years, served on Cal Poly Pomona Collins College of Hospitality Management's Board of Advisors. Bill is a resident of Los Angeles, California. Bill hopes to serve on The Hollywood Partnership's Board and support the continuing initiatives to house the homeless and improve safety and cleanliness, which are critical issues to tourism and quality of life for Hollywood residents and businesses.

