PARTICIPATING VENUES

DSBIA

1. VOICE Gallery
La Cumbre Plaza, 110 S. Hope Ave., Unit H-124

BessDISCARDIA: The Afterlife of Discarded Objects. An amusing exhibition by Dianne and Jim Bess. Most people visit thrift stores looking for something useful. Dianne and Jim went looking for trouble. Nearly two years later, they had assembled the whimsical objects into 600 bizarre and mischievous sculptures with rather quirky titles.

2. Couture Pattern Museum
1525 State Street, Penthouse Floor, Ste. 301

Explore the Chanel in Vogue photography exhibition from New York, courtesy of Thames & Hudson, featuring Irving Penn, Cecil Beaton, and others, alongside Chanel archival materials. Hear recordings from a former Chanel technical fashion designer and the Consul General of France. Enjoy wine with a book purchase or museum donation.

3. Art & Soul
1323 State Street

We invite you to experience The Willard Suitcase Project, featuring Jon Crispin's evocative photographs of suitcases left behind by patients at New York's Willard Psychiatric Center. These deeply personal belongings reveal forgotten lives and stories, inviting reflection on dignity, identity, and mental health. Presented in support of Santa Barbara's New Beginnings nonprofit organization.

4. Santa Barbara Fine Art
1321 State Street

November brings a quiet beauty and a softer light to the coast. The golden hills deepen in color, and the Pacific shimmers beneath the skies, changes in seasons, light and shadows as we move from Fall to Winter. (Painting by local artist, Sam Winkelmeyer: "Rain Incoming," 24 x 48, oil on canvas)

5. domecíl
1223 State Street

Join us for an evening with photographers Brian Kuhlman and Joslyn Lawrence, the artists behind Song of Absolution. Through a slideshow and artist talk, explore their evocative photographs of trees from around the world and our local landscape, whose moody, painterly quality captures the quiet beauty and mystery of nature. Talk begins at 6pm.

6. The Grand on State
1218 State Street

Lois Mahalia returns to The Grand for our regular 1st Thursday performance, joined by Brian Mann on grand piano and her full band. The show runs from 7-9:30pm. Doors open at 5pm., so come early and enjoy dinner, cocktails, wine and more before the music begins.

7. Jeanne Dentzel Art
1213 State Street, Unit i

Jeanne Weber Dentzel will open up her working artist studio and show new work as well as featuring prints on paper for holiday gifts. Her book Social Surrealism, a collection of painted collages, will also be available.

8. 10 West Gallery
10 W. Anapamu St.

ARTICULATIONS: 12 artists expressing human connections that span from our relationship to the universe to basic connections like feeling the joy of sunlight on your face. Local and regional contemporary work: paintings, sculptures and digital mixed media. Image: James Petrucci, Symbiosis. 22 x 30 inches. Through Nov. 29.

9. REH Contemporary Studio & Gallery
12 W. Anapamu St.

The special feature this month is seeing the Studio works-in-progress with an eye for the Holidays. Small and large paintings and all those in-between, colorful, fun, and festive, or serene and dream-like moods coming from the easel. In the Gallery, Bonnie Rubenstein's powerfully curated eight are an intriguing delight.

10. Seimandi & Leprieur Gallery
33 W. Anapamu St.

Discover In Studio, an exhibition of large-scale abstract paintings by Chicago-based artist Julie Anderson Mathias. Blending architectural precision with playful experimentation, Julie A. M. transforms vibrant colors into dynamic compositions. Explore her creative process through studio photographs and miniature gallery models, and experience the joyful possibilities of abstract art at Seimandi & Leprieur Gallery.

11. Sullivan Goss
11 E. Anapamu St.

Join Sullivan Goss Gallery at the opening reception for Beyond the Veil, Maria Rendon's third solo show of sublime abstractions with the gallery. Also on view, Mary-Austin Klein hyperrealist show Lucidity, and our Fall Salon of recent acquisitions and historic masterworks.

12. Gallery Josephine
133 E. Anapamu St.

This November, Gallery Josephine celebrates the art of giving with gratitude. Josephine Tournier Ingram marks her fourth year supporting CALM. Guests can learn how to bid on her original art and a private gallery soirée benefiting the November 6 Rosewood Miramar fundraiser, helping CALM prevent childhood trauma and help families heal.

13. Faulkner Gallery
40 E. Anapamu St.

Explore the Abstract Art Collective Member Show, featuring dynamic paintings from more than fifty artists. Enjoy the exhibition at the Faulkner Gallery November 2–30 (M–F 10am–7pm, Sat. 10am–5pm, Sun. 12–5pm). Don't miss the November 5 (1st Thursday) reception, 5–7pm.

14. Santa Barbara Museum of Art
1130 State Street

Check out the Museum's newest exhibitions, Cassatt & Friends, Stage Craft: Pictorialist Photography and Performance, and Elegies of Abstraction! Enjoy free admission from 5–8 pm. An opening party for these exhibitions will follow on November 13, with tickets available online.

15. Unite to Light's Power of Possibility
San Marcos Courtyard, 1129 State Street

Join us for The Power of Possibility, a celebration of light, creativity, and community! Experience inspiring light art, live music, and hands-on activities for all ages. Celebrate Unite to Light's 15-year milestone and 300,000+ solar lights distributed across 80+ countries. Discover what's possible when we bring light and power to people without electricity.

16. Fuzion Gallery & Boutique
1115 State Street

Burgandy Viscosi's painting exploration began following a death experience from a severe car accident at age 20. "This deeply profound experience transformed my understanding of physical reality." Her life is dedicated to visually conveying profound insight into how frequency serves as a bridge between Spirit and the physical world.
