SOUND DESIGN

Who thought a building could be music to your ears? Well, this midcentury masterpiece absolutely sings! (Makes sense, it's currently built as a recording studio...) But, don't feel limited, it's extremely charming and versatile. Step downstairs and imagine a chic and sleek cocktail lounge. Or, let the two-story-high, modular wooden walls inspire your artist's collective or coffee shop. With ADA compliance (*tenant to verify), lots of windows, and a full kitchen, you've got a sound choice no matter what your dream. Move quick or miss out - and then you'll REALLY have to face the music!
