LTC Presents "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever"

LONGMONT, CO, November 11, 2026 — LTC continues its successful 70th season with Barbara Robinson's beloved holiday comedy, The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, running December 4–13.

Directed by Theresa Collins, this hilarious and heartwarming production tells the story of the Herdman children, six notoriously mischievous siblings who unexpectedly take over their town's annual Christmas pageant. Known for causing trouble wherever they go, the Herdmans seem destined to turn the beloved holiday tradition into a complete disaster. But amid the chaos, laughter, and surprises, something remarkable happens, offering everyone a fresh perspective on the true meaning of Christmas.

LTC believes that live theatre is about more than what happens on stage. It's about creating shared experiences, bringing people together, and making memories that last long after the curtain falls.

This holiday season, LTC invites audiences of all ages to experience that spirit firsthand with an evening of laughter, carols, and a story that reminds us that kindness, understanding, and the magic of the holidays can come from the most unexpected places.

Whether it's a cherished family tradition, a festive outing with friends, or a child's first experience with live theatre, The Best Christmas Pageant Ever offers something for everyone.

At Longmont Theatre Company, we're proud to be A Place for All, and this holiday season, we're especially excited to welcome the whole family.
