LTC Brings The Rocky Horror Show to Life this Halloween

LONGMONT, CO, October 18, 2026 — Get ready to do the Time Warp again! Longmont Theatre Company continues its 70th anniversary season with Richard O'Brien's cult classic musical, The Rocky Horror Show, running October 23 through October 31 at the Longmont Performing Arts Center, 513 Main Street in downtown Longmont.

Directed by Bud Coleman and starring Bonnie and Taylor Sims and Jef Forsberg, this outrageous rock-and-roll musical promises an unforgettable theatrical experience.

When newly engaged sweethearts Brad and Janet find themselves stranded on a dark and stormy night, they seek refuge in a mysterious castle belonging to the eccentric Dr. Frank-N-Furter. What follows is a wild adventure of science fiction, seduction, self-discovery, and rock-and-roll mayhem.

Audiences are encouraged to dress up and participate in the fun. Official audience participation prop bags will be available for purchase at the theatre. To protect the performers and venue, only approved props purchased at the theatre may be used.

The Halloween festivities reach their peak with special 10:30 PM performances on Saturday, 10/ 24 and Halloween night, 10/31. LTC offers a full bar and concessions.

Performance Schedule:

- Friday, October 23 at 7:30 PM
- Saturday, October 24 at 6:00 PM and 10:30 PM
- Sunday, October 25 at 4:00 PM
- Thursday, October 29 at 7:30 PM
- Friday, October 30 at 7:30 PM
- Saturday, October 31 at 6:00 PM and 10:30 PM

Tickets are selling quickly, and advance purchases are strongly encouraged. This production contains mature themes, sexual content, strong language, and material intended for mature audiences.
