OCTOBER 2

1 StudioWorks Gallery

307 East Blvd | 5–9 p.m.

The StudioWorks building, a historic property in Dilworth, offers beautiful studio and gallery space to 12 talented artists — extraordinary art offered directly to the public from the artists' working studios. Monthly SouthEnd Gallery Crawls (First Fridays), Open Studio days (Wednesdays, 11 a.m.–2 p.m.), and periodic gallery events allow for many buying opportunities for the public. The gallery is also open by appointment. StudioWorks is a stop on the Dilworth Home Tour and is open to the public for the duration of the tour.

3 Vane Gallery

1218 South Church St | 5:30–8:30 p.m.

Nestled in Charlotte's creative heart, Vane Gallery is the artistic home of painter Victoria Schweizer — a visionary who forged her path from New York to film sets to the trading floor before dedicating herself full time to art and philanthropy. With two gallery locations in South End and Myers Park, Vane showcases Victoria's evocative series on sports legends, mugshots, and atmospheric abstractions — many of which are offered in support of charitable cause. During First Friday, visitors can meet the artist, enjoy light refreshments, and explore works that reflect her passion for community, stories, and resilience. Come experience how art and heart converge in a gallery committed to giving back.
