The Annual Meeting & Awards Luncheon is one of Nashville’s most respected business events of the year. Attended by more than 1,000, the event offers an opportunity for business and community leaders to network and meaningfully engage with the topics most relevant and urgent to our transforming center city.

From our esteemed keynote speakers to the awardees recognized for their significant contributions to our vibrant urban core, this event is a must-do, offering an unrivaled opportunity to align your company's name with what makes Nashville the IT city.
