Grab a pen and start planning a little early, and maybe hitting the gym extra hard.

Downtown Norfolk Restaurant Week runs Sunday through July 19, and it's a great opportunity to try the fare at the 20 featured restaurants.

The chefs have been busy creating menus for price-fixed lunches starting at $10, and dinners for $20, $30 and $40. The emphasis is on fresh local seafood, meat and vegetarian dishes.

For participating restaurants and detailed menu offerings, visit Downtown Norfolk (<http://www.downtownnorfolk.org>) online.
