

Norfolk to illuminate skyline, unveil new holiday art in NEON District

NORFOLK

by: WAVY Web Staff

Posted: Nov 14, 2020 / 04:43 PM EST / Updated: Nov 14, 2020 / 09:55 PM EST

NORFOLK, Va. (WAVY) — Norfolk will not be hosting the traditional Grand Illumination Parade this year, but the city plans to kick off the holiday season in a big way.

The illumination of the city's skyline and other mini-activities will happen throughout the evening beginning on Saturday, Nov. 21, from 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. in Downtown Norfolk.

Top spots to safely see the holiday lights this year

The timeline of events has not been released, but here's what we know will happen so far:

- The unveiling of new holiday art installation in the NEON District

- Model Train Exhibit in Selden Market
- Socially-distanced Santa photo opportunity
Reserve your timeslot now:
  - Enter the queue line between 4 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.
  - Enter the queue line between 6 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.
- Performances by The Rhythm Project and other outdoor music and entertainment
- Snowfall on Granby

The Santa photos opportunity is for visitors to briefly chat and wave to him from a safe distance. Only reserve one ticket per family. Upon arriving, guests enter the socially distanced queue line to visit with Santa. Only those with reservations can enter the line during their reserved time slot. Only a certain number of tickets will be available for each time slot. Masks are required.

For more information on the evening, click here.